A Grandma's Heart!

EACH DAY your donations have the potential of changing hearts & saving lives at FirstChoice!

This was found in a 'grandmother's journal' and was included in an email to FirstChoice Clinic.

I received a phone call from [my daughter]. 'Mom, I'm pregnant!' My heart fluttered and felt as though it welled up with love overflowing. I was finally going to be a grandma and I was in love. [My daughter] started crying and said she wanted an abortion. Her boyfriend wanted her in his life, but no child. She did not want to lose her man! I did not want to lose my grandbaby! All the love in my heart turned into a sick helpless feeling. My daughter did not want to be a single parent.

As the days went by my daughter had been to FirstChoice Clinic. They did an ultrasound and she showed me my grandbaby for the first time. I wanted to hold it, sing to it, and rock it! She had another ultrasound and could see fingers, eyes, nose and movement...sucking it's thumb! My daughter knew it was time to do the abortion...

and I was sickened. I prayed like never before! I had so much love to give this child! I tried not to think about the days ahead and kept praying.

Later, my daughter called me again from the abortion clinic. They had her go into a room alone with a sheet of questions. As she started reading the paper, she finally came to her senses and wondered what she was doing there. She ran out of the building as fast as she could and I heard the words I'd longed to hear! "You're going to be a grandma, I could not do it!". I cried and thanked God for answering my prayers.
